

CITY OF CUMBERLAND.

1870, c. 241 repeals sections 5 and 6 of 1864, c. 121, [Sup. 1861-7, sections 34 and 35, p. 321,] and re-enacts the same with amendments as follows:

1870, c. 241.
Power to issue
water bonds
and levy tax.

SEC. 35. For the purpose of introducing a supply of good soft water into the said city, the mayor and councilmen are hereby authorized to issue bonds of said city to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, to be denominated "Cumberland Water Bonds," at an interest not exceeding seven per cent. per annum, and to levy and collect a special tax on the assessable property of said city, to pay the interest on said bonds, and to provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof, to be specially designated as the "Water Tax,"

Appointment of commissioners
to introduce
water into the city.

Sub-Sec. 1. For the purpose of putting said water works in operation, Horace Resley, Lewis Smith, James M. Schley, J. B. H. Campbell, Asa Willison, John Humbird, J. Philip Roman, Hopewell Hebb, George Henderson, Jr., he and they, or a majority of them, are hereby appointed commissioners, with power from time to time to contract for, purchase, lease and hold for said corporation, in fee simple or for a term of years, any land, real estate, spring, brook, water and water course, and also the right to use and occupy forever, or for a term of years, any land, real estate, spring, brook or water course which they may conceive expedient and necessary for the purpose of conveying water into the said city, for the use of said city, and for the health and convenience of the inhabitants thereof, and also the right to enter and pass through from time to time, as occasion may require, and to use and occupy the said lands through which they may deem it necessary to convey the said water, and they are hereby invested with all the rights and powers necessary for the introduction of water into said city; in the event of death, resignation, removal or refusal to act of any or either of the said commissioners, the mayor and councilmen of said city are hereby authorized and required to fill such vacancy or vacancies.

Approved and in force April 7, 1870.
