

property therein to the value of five hundred dollars, mayor of the town of Frostburg.

75. Sub-Sec. 1. The persons qualified, as required by the preceding section, shall also, at the same time and place, elect six persons, who shall have resided in said town one year next preceding said election, and who shall be assessed on the books of said town, to a sum not less than one hundred dollars, as councilmen of said town. Ibid s. 4 Election of councilmen.

Sub-Sec. 2. John C. Weis, Owen Hitchens and John Hawking are appointed judges of election, to hold the first election under this act, and immediately after the passage of this act, they shall give at least five days notice of the time at which said election shall be held; at which election all persons qualified, as prescribed in the third and fourth sections of this act, shall be entitled to vote for one person for mayor, and six persons for councilmen of said town; and the said judges of election, before opening the polls, shall take an oath before some justice of the peace in said town, to permit every qualified person to vote, and none other, and a majority of said three judges shall have power to do all things under this section, in case one of them dies or refuses to act; and the mayor and councilmen then elected shall immediately qualify and serve until the first Monday in May, eighteen hundred and seventy-one, or until their successors shall qualify; all future mayors and councilmen elected according to the preceding sections, shall qualify by the first Monday in May, and take possession of their offices the first Monday in May each year. Ibid. s. 5.
First election. Term of office.

Sub-Sec. 3. The mayor and councilmen of the town of Frostburg for each succeeding election shall appoint three judges of election, who shall have power to appoint clerks and conduct the elections in all respects as the elections for members of the general assembly are required to be conducted, opening the polls at nine o'clock in the morning, and closing them at six o'clock in the evening; and the said judges and clerks shall receive the same compensation as judges and clerks of Ibid s. 6 Subsequent elections.
