

cents; for every carriage and two horses, thirty cents; for every carriage or wagon with four horses or four oxen, forty cents; for every carriage and one horse, twenty cents; for every horse and cart, twenty cents; for every horse, mule or ox, five cents per head; for every sheep, calf, hog, etc., three cents per head, and the said bridge and landing therefor is hereby declared to be subject to the right of taking tolls as aforesaid, so long as said bridge shall be kept in good repair and condition, and sustained as a public highway.

3. That the said Mutual Building Association, in building said bridge, shall have the same provided with a suitable and proper drawbridge, of a width of not less than twenty-four feet, so as to admit the full and free egress and ingress of vessels to and from said creek.

4. That the said Mutual Building Association, its successors and assigns, shall have full power and authority, if they think proper, to lease, sell and dispose of said bridge or right of landing to any person or persons, body corporate or politic, who are hereby authorized to purchase and hold the same, with all the privileges and appendages to the same belonging, and the purchaser or purchasers thereof, their heirs, successors and assigns, shall be authorized and empowered to erect, build and keep in repair the said bridge, and to ask, demand and receive the like tolls as aforesaid for the passage of said bridge, and in the same manner as if they were severally named herein, and as fully and effectually as if they were the present proprietors thereof.

5. That the county commissioners of Anne Arundel county, and the mayor, recorder and aldermen of the city of Annapolis are hereby authorized and empowered to subscribe such sum or sums of money to aid the construction of said bridge as they may deem proper, and upon such terms and conditions as may be provided for by agreement between the said association and the said county commissioners, and mayor, recorder and aldermen.

6. That at any time hereafter, it shall and may be lawful for the mayor, recorder, aldermen of the city of Annapolis, or for the county commissioners of Anne Arundel county, either to purchase the said bridge by contract or agreement with the said Mutual Building Association, or to assume, by resolution or otherwise, the charge of keeping the said bridge in repair, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the said mayor, recorder and aldermen, or the said county commissioners; provided, however, that in no case shall there be greater toll demanded or received than as hereinbefore provided.
