

240. The several supervisors shall make general repairs of the roads within their districts at least twice in each year, once prior to the fifteenth of May, and once prior to the fifteenth of September, and the county commissioners shall fix and regulate from time to time the prices to be paid by supervisors for the hire of necessary teams and laborers to execute any work under this law.

Ibid. s. 6
When repairs to be made.

241. The several supervisors shall report semi-annually, in June and November, to the county commissioners, the state of the roads within their districts, and the expenses by them incurred under this law; the amount of money paid out by them in constructing and repairing roads, with the vouchers for the same; each supervisor shall be entitled to receive two dollars per day for each day he is actually employed on the roads for the said commissioners, and shall be wholly exempt, during his time of service, from militia duty and from service on juries.

Ibid. s. 7
Supervisors to report semi-annually.

Per diem.

Exemption from militia and jury duty.

242. In addition to the proper proportion of the general road tax levied for ordinary expenses of roads and bridges within the county, the county commissioners shall have power, in their discretion, upon the petition of thirty or more land-owners within any road district, to levy upon the assessable property within such road district an additional special tax of not more than ten cents in the hundred dollars, to be collected as other county taxes, and to be expended under the direction of the county commissioners in the improvement of the roads within said district.

Ibid. s. 8
Road tax.

243. Any supervisor may be sued before any justice of the peace, in an action of debt, in the name of the said commissioners, for any dereliction of duty under this act; the amount to be recovered not to exceed in any case the sum of one hundred dollars, according to the aggravation of the case, either party having the right of appeal to the circuit court, as in other cases of small debts; and all sums so recovered shall be applied in aid of the road fund of the district where such supervisor acts, or he shall be liable to indictment in the

Ibid. s. 9.
Supervisor may be sued for dereliction of duty.

May be indicted