

when and in which event, but not otherwise, no auction duty upon such securities shall be paid by the auctioneer who has taken out such special license.

What goods
general auctioneer may sell.

95. Any auctioneer paying the license fee and executing the bond prescribed in the last foregoing section, may make sales of every description of goods, wares and merchandise of every kind, and real estate, and may exercise all the rights and privileges of a general auctioneer to the extent and amount of the sum prescribed in said sections; and he shall make under oath quarterly returns to the comptroller, showing the full amount of his sales of every kind, distinguishing his sales of goods, wares and merchandise, and personal effects of every kind, from his sales of real estate and houses; but any auctioneer taking out a special license, as provided in article four, section eighty-six of public local laws in regard to auctions in the city of Baltimore, to sell at public auction stocks of banks or other incorporated institutions, state or city loans, shall not be required to make any return of sales of such securities, and if any auctioneer under said license shall sell any amount exceeding the sum named in the last preceding section, he shall be subject to all the penalties hereinafter imposed upon auctioneers who shall sell without license.

Report quarterly to comptroller.

Exception.

Penalty for excess.

Approved and in force March 31, 1870.

BAILIFFS.

1870, c. 94 enacts the following and repeals all acts inconsistent therewith:

1870, c 94.
Salaries.

135. Sub-Sec. 1. The register of the city of Baltimore shall pay to the bailiff respectively of the superior court of Baltimore city, of the court of common pleas of Baltimore city, of the Baltimore city court, of the circuit court of Baltimore city, and of the criminal court of Baltimore city, the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum as and for their respective salaries, at the same time and in the same manner as is now by law provided for the payment of the salaries of the