ELECTIONS.

1870, c. 54 repeals section 79 and enacts the following in lieu thereof:

1870, c. 52.
Number and boundaries of election districts.

79. Caroline county is divided into five election districts, to be known respectively as district No. one, or Henderson's district; district No. two, or Greensborough district; district No. three, or Denton district; district No. four, or Harmony district, and district No. five, or Federalburg district. District No. one, or Henderson district, shall consist of the upper portion of what has heretofore been known as district No. one, or the upper district of Caroline county; to begin for the boundaries thereof at the crossing by the public road of Long Marsh Branch, the dividing line between Caroline and Queen Anne's counties, and thence with said public road to Hollingsworth's corner, thence with the public road to Gens' shop, thence with the public road to Old Town branch, thence with the public road to Anthony's mill, thence with the shortest line to Choptank river, thence with the river to the Delaware line, and thence with the boundaries of Caroline county to the place of beginning. District No. two, or Greensborough district, shall consist of the remaining portion of what has been heretofore known as district No. one, or the upper district of Caroline county. District No. three, or Denton district, shall consist of what has heretofore been known as district No. two, of Caroline county. District No. four, or Harmony district, of what has heretofore been known as district No. three,
