

within said village; and the said corporation may lease or otherwise dispose of any property now owned or which may be hereafter acquired by said village, having first given public notice of such lease or sale in one or more of the newspapers printed in Caroline county once a week for three successive weeks before such lease or sale.

Bounds.

100. The bounds of Greensborough shall be as they have been, or may hereafter be fixed by the commissioners of said village, not containing more than four hundred acres of land.

Commissioners, when and how elected.

101. The citizens of Greensborough who have resided in said village for six months previous to the day of election, and who are qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly, shall, on the fourth Monday of April, annually, at such place as the commissioners of said village shall appoint, elect by ballot five persons, residents and qualified voters of said village, commissioners of Greensborough.

Judges of election.

102. The commissioners, or a majority of them, shall be judges of such election, and the proceedings shall be recorded under their direction, and every commissioner, before he opens an election, shall make oath before a justice of the peace that he will faithfully and impartially permit every person to vote at such election who shall be qualified to vote for commissioners of said village, and that he will not suffer any person to vote at such election who shall not be legally qualified to vote.

Oath.

Notice of election.

103. If at any time an election shall not be had for commissioners at the time mentioned in this article, an election may be held at any time after ten days notice thereof shall have been given by the commissioners or a majority of them.

Vacancies among commissioners

104. If any vacancy shall occur by the death, resignation, removal or refusal to act of any one or more of the commissioners elected as aforesaid, the remaining commissioners, or a majority of them, shall elect a proper person to fill said vacancy.

New election in case of tie.

105. If at any election held under this article, two or more persons shall receive the same number of votes
