

for commissioner of said village, the judges of the said election shall, after having given five days notice of the time and place, proceed to hold another election to fill up said board of commissioners, and the person or persons receiving the highest number of votes at said election shall, with those previously chosen, if any, constitute the commissioners of Greensborough for the year ensuing.

106. Every commissioner, before he proceeds to act as such, shall make oath before some justice of the peace for Caroline county, that he will diligently and faithfully, according to the best of his skill and judgment, perform the duties of commissioner without favor, partiality or prejudice, and a certificate of such qualification shall be returned by the said justice to the commissioners, to be filed and recorded among their proceedings.

Commissioners' oath.

107. The said commissioners shall meet at such place as they may appoint within said village, on the second Monday of every month ensuing their election, and as much oftener by adjournment as they shall deem necessary.

Meetings.

108. The said commissioners shall, at their first meeting after their election, elect a president of their board, and appoint a clerk, a bailiff, a treasurer, and two assessors of taxes, whose duties and qualifications shall be as hereinafter prescribed.

Election of president and appointment of officers.

109. The president of said board of commissioners shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause, in which event the said commissioners may select a president pro tempore; he shall sign and cause to be promulgated all by-laws and ordinances of said board of commissioners, and shall countersign all orders and drafts drawn by the clerk, under the direction of the said commissioners, on the treasurer of said village.

Duties of president.

110. The clerk shall be appointed from among the citizens of said village qualified to vote for commissioners; he shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath before the said commissioners, or any one of them,

Clerk.

Oath.