

as county taxes are collected; and in order to enforce the payment of said taxes, fines or forfeitures, the duties and powers imposed and conferred on the collectors of county taxes by the eighty-first article of the code of public general laws of this state, and its several supplements and amendments, are imposed and conferred on said bailiff in as full and ample manner as if the several provisions of the said eighty-first article of the code of public general laws and its supplements and amendments relating to the collection of county taxes, were herein expressly enacted.

118. The said commissioners may pass such by-laws ^{Commissioners to pass ordinances.} and ordinances as they shall deem necessary, for the good government of said village and the inhabitants thereof; for the removal of nuisances; to prevent swine and geese from going at large; and for the opening, ^{Open new streets, &c.} extension, repairing, improvement and closing up of streets, lanes and alleys of said village, and all damages done, suffered or incurred by the opening, closing, extension or improving said streets, lanes or alleys, shall be determined and assessed by three disinterested persons, residents of said village, to be appointed by said commissioners, who shall within twenty days after notification of their appointment, take an oath before a justice of the peace for Caroline county, that they will faithfully, fairly and without partiality or prejudice, value and assess the loss and damage to be suffered and incurred by any person or persons interested in the property, over and through which the said street, lane or alley is to be opened, closed, extended, widened or improved, and they shall within ten days after such valuation or assessment, return the same in writing under their hands and seals, with a certificate of their qualification before a justice of the peace, as hereinbefore provided, to the commissioners of said village, which said valuation and assessment shall be ratified or rejected by the said commissioners as in their judgment may seem proper. And if any person shall feel aggrieved by the determination of the said commissioners in ratifying or rejecting said award or return,
