

value of improving them (if any) not exceeding five cents on every one hundred dollars of the assessed value thereof.

Sub-Sec. 2. Such tax shall be collected and paid to the treasurer by the collector, by them annually appointed, who shall have power to distrain therefor as the collector of the county assessment has to distrain for the same, and the mayor and common council shall require the said collector to enter into bond with sufficient security to the said board for the true and faithful performance of his duties as such, which said bond shall be liable as collectors' bonds are under the laws of the state, and the said mayor and common council shall fix the compensation of such collector.

Ibid. s. 8.
How tax collected.

Collector's
bond and compensation.

Sub-Sec. 3. The mayor and common council may, whenever they think the public interest requires it, cause an assessment to be made of all the property in said corporation, subject to an assessment as aforesaid by three competent persons as assessors by them appointed, and said mayor and common council shall prescribe the manner in which such assessment shall be made, and provide for adjusting all deficiencies in relation to such assessment and do all other things necessary for making such assessment.

Ibid. s. 9.
Assessment.

28. The mayor and common council shall appoint a competent person as treasurer, whose duty it shall be to take proper care of the finances of said corporation, and who shall give a bond with security, which shall be approved by said mayor and common council, for the true and faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of said corporation.

Ibid. s. 10.
Treasurer.

Bond.

29. The mayor and common council or a majority of them, shall have power to make all such by-laws, regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this state, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and expedient, other than that which is hereinafter specified, for the comfort, health, convenience, safety and prosperity of the town and its inhabitants, to restrain or license theatrical or other public exhibitions and amusements

Ibid. s. 11.
Powers of mayor and council.