

not taxed by the state within the limits of the corporation, or the prevention and extinguishment of fire in said town; to license and prevent dogs from running at large in said town, and for taxing them, and for the dispatch of all those having no recognized owners; to license and prevent swine, geese and ducks from running at large in the streets; for the prevention and removal of all nuisances, preservation of health and suppression of vice and immorality within the limits of the town.

Ibid. s. 12.
Bailiffs.

Their powers.

Bond.

30. The said council or a majority of them, shall have power annually to appoint a bailiff or bailiffs, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town, and for this purpose he or they are invested with the same power and authority as any constable under the laws of this state, and the said bailiff or bailiffs shall give bond, with sufficient security, to the said commissioners, for the true and faithful performance of his duty as such, which bond shall be liable, as constables bonds are liable, to the laws of this state.

Ibid. s. 13.
Quorum.

Charter not to be forfeited.

Ibid. s. 14.
Power of corporation to pave streets, &c.

31. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and neglect or non-use, shall not work a forfeiture of this charter.

32. Sub-Sec. 1. The mayor and common council may grade and pave streets and lay flag stones across the same, and require the owners of lots, in front of which such grading or paving is to be done, to do the same at their own expense.

Ibid. s. 15.
Lots liable for cost of paving.

Sub-Sec. 2. If any owner of a lot shall neglect to pave the same for the space of two months after notice has been given by the mayor, the common council may direct the mayor to cause the same to be done, and the expense thereof shall be a lien on such lots, and may be recovered as other debts of like amount.

Ibid. s. 16.
Police regulations.

33. Sub-Sec. 1. The mayor and common council may pass all ordinances necessary for the good government and general police of the town, and enforce the observance of such ordinances by fines and penalties not exceeding twenty dollars for any one offence.