RAILROADS.

1870, c. 474 entitled an act to empower the mayor and common council of Manchester to subscribe to the capital stock of the Parkton and Manchester railroad company, enacts as follows:

1. The mayor and common council of Manchester are authorized and empowered to subscribe to the capital stock of the Parkton and Manchester railroad company the sum of ten thousand dollars, and in the discretion of said mayor and common council, any further sum not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of twenty thousand dollars, and in case a less sum than twenty thousand dollars may be subscribed to the said capital stock, then the said mayor and common council are authorized to endorse the bonds of said company to any amount which, with the amount subscribed to said capital stock, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of twenty thousand dollars, which endorsement shall be secured in such manner and on such terms as may be agreed upon between the said mayor and common council and the said railroad company.

2. The said mayor and common council are authorized and empowered to issue bonds of the corporation of Manchester, bearing interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, for such amount, from time to time, as may be required to pay the amounts which may be subscribed to said capital stock, which bonds shall not be subject to taxation for county or corporation taxes; and to levy on the assessable property within the limits of said municipal corporation, using as the basis of said levy the assessment of the real and personal property within the limits of said municipal corporation, made under the act of eighteen hundred and sixty-six, chapter one hundred and fifty-seven, and the supplement thereto passed at the January session, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, chapter three hundred and forty-one, or any assessment hereafter made according to law, such amount of taxes as may be required to pay the interest on said bonds and the principal debt,
