

20. Any trustee of the poor of the county may, in writing, under his hand, appoint what poor shall be received into said almshouse. How paupers admitted.

Approved and in force March 2, 1870.

STATE'S ATTORNEY.

1870, c. 395 adds the following:

30. Sub-Sec. 1. In all criminal cases which may be tried in the circuit court for Dorchester county, the judges of said court may, in addition to the sum allowed by law as an appearance fee, allow the state's attorney for said county such compensation in each case, by way of trial fee, as the said judges may think just and proper, to be levied by the county commissioners. 1870, c. 395, s. 1. Fees in criminal cases tried.

Sub-Sec. 2. For services rendered by the state's attorney for Dorchester county, before committing magistrates in preliminary examinations, the judges of said circuit court for Dorchester county may allow to said state's attorney such compensation not exceeding the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars for any one year, as the said judges shall think just and proper; and for all trials in criminal cases before magistrates, the same fees shall be allowed the said state's attorney as are now allowed in similar cases before the circuit court, to be taxed by the magistrate with the other costs in the case, and paid by the party, if convicted, and to be paid by the county commissioners if the party is acquitted or is unable to pay. Ibid. s. 2. Fees for services before magistrates.

Sub-Sec. 3. On or before the fifth day of June, in each year, the state's attorney for Dorchester county shall make up and present to the judges of said court, for their inspection and approval, his account for services rendered during the fiscal year past, which account, when approved by said judges, shall be filed with the county commissioners for levy. Ibid. s. 3. Account to be approved by judges.

Approved and in force April 8, 1870.