

of the markets within said limits, and impose and exact and provide for collecting such rents or tolls, from persons selling within said limits, as they may from time to time consider expedient; and they may provide that no article of marketing shall be bought or sold beyond said limits during market hours.

May exempt
water bonds
from taxation.

174. The mayor, aldermen and common council of Frederick shall have power and authority, in their discretion, to exempt from assessment and taxation for municipal purposes the bonds issued, or which may be issued, by the said mayor, aldermen and common council of Frederick, for the introduction of an additional supply of water into the city of Frederick, and authorized to be issued by the act of assembly of eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, chapter eighty-seven, entitled "an act to add additional sections to article eleven of the code of public local laws of Frederick county," relating to the powers and duties of the mayor, aldermen and common council of Frederick.

Bond in appeals
from mayor.

175. In all appeals from the mayor to the circuit court for Frederick county, the party appealing shall give bond with at least two sureties, who shall be approved by the mayor, in a penalty double the amount of the fine imposed and the costs which may accrue on such appeal, which penalty shall be adjudged by the mayor, and conditioned that if the party appealing shall not prosecute such appeal with effect at the next term of the circuit court for Frederick county, and also pay and satisfy the said mayor, aldermen and common council of Frederick, in case the judgment of the mayor shall be affirmed, as well the fine and costs adjudged by the mayor, as also all costs that shall be awarded by the said court, then the said bond to be and remain in full force and virtue, otherwise to be of none effect; and no such appeal shall be heard by the court until such bond shall be given and approved as aforesaid, and filed with the clerk of the court.

Taxable limits.

176. The taxable limits of Frederick city shall, from and after the passage of this act, be as follows: Beginning at a stone planted, marked B. C. T. L., standing