

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

1870, c. 276 repeals and re-enacts section 187 so to read as follows:

1870, c. 276.
Number of, for each election district.

187. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables in Frederick county, to wit: for election district number one, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number two, seven justices of the peace and six constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number four, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number five, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number six, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number seven, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number eight, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number nine, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number ten, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number eleven, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number twelve, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number thirteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fourteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number fifteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number sixteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number seventeen, two justices of the peace and two constables.

Approved and in force April 4, 1870.

1870, c. 1, approved and in force January 20, 1870, authorizes the governor to appoint two justices of the peace for the second election district, in addition to the four now required by law to be appointed in said district.

1870, c. 36, approved and in force February 19, 1870, authorizes the appointment of one additional justice of the peace in the eleventh election district.

Both these acts appear to be superseded by the subsequent act of 1870, c. 276, supra.