

201. The corporate bounds of said village, for all purposes except taxation by the laws of the corporation, shall be as follows: Beginning at the junction of the roads leading from Mechanicstown to Graceham, and the road leading from said road towards Apple's church, between the lands of William J. Black and James Creeger, and with said road north fifteen and a quarter degrees, east eighty-eight perches, north sixteen and a half degrees, east seventy-eight perches; thence through the lands of John R. Bollen north fifty degrees, west one hundred and fifty-one perches to the north corner of Milton E. Biggs' dwelling; thence north seventy-eight degrees, west one hundred and sixty perches, ending in a road; thence south sixty-eight degrees, west one hundred and ten perches, south fifty degrees, west ninety perches; thence south twenty degrees, east one hundred and seventy-six perches; thence south one and a-half degrees, west eleven perches; thence south fifty-two degrees, east two hundred and forty-six perches, to a bridge near a forge and lime-kilns; then by a straight line to the beginning.

Ibid. s. 9.
Corporate bounds.

202. All fines and forfeitures under the ordinance of said corporation may be recovered as small debts are recoverable before any justice of the peace.

Ibid. s. 10.
Fines, &c., how recovered.

203. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to make all such by-laws and regulations and ordinances, as shall not conflict with the laws and constitution of the state of Maryland.

Ibid. s. 11.
Powers of commissioners.

204. They shall have power to establish the limits and width of the streets and alleys of the said village, and remove obstructions therefrom, and may, with the consent of one-half of the owners of the property through which they may pass, open new streets, lanes or alleys.

Ibid. s. 12.
May regulate streets, &c.

205. Sub-Sec. 1. They shall have power to provide for the payment of damages and expenses of opening, widening, laying out, and grading the streets, lanes, and alleys, in said village, by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole of the assessable

Ibid. s. 13.
Opening, widening, &c., of streets.