What inquisition to state.

Tender of valuation.

206. The said president and commissioners shall have power to levy and collect taxes in said town, not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the hundred dollars valuation, on the assessable property of said town, and they shall once in five years or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor who shall under oath, assess and value the property in said town, in the same manner and with like authority as county assessors; provided, that the taxable limits of said town shall include all that part of the town now improved, and all that part recently laid off and partially improved; fully authorizing the commissioners to extend the taxable limits with the improvements hereafter made as they may deem just. But in no instance shall it exceed the corporate limits as laid down in section nine. [201.]
