

Meetings.

57. The commissioners for Rockville shall meet at some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June next succeeding their appointment, and as often thereafter as may be necessary to discharge the duties of their office.

Bailiffs, appointment of.

60. The commissioners for Rockville shall, at their first meeting after their appointment, appoint a chief bailiff for said town, and such under bailiffs as they may deem necessary, to serve during the pleasure of the commissioners, and upon the removal of said bailiffs or any of them, shall appoint others in their stead.

Annual statement.

65. The said commissioners for Rockville shall keep and annually publish a tabular statement of the receipts and expenditures of the funds of the corporation.

Duties of chief bailiff.

73. The chief bailiff shall attend all meetings of the commissioners for said town, and perform such duties as they shall direct, and exercise a general police supervision over said town, and see that none of the provisions of this charter or the ordinances of said town are violated.

Approved and in force April 4, 1870.

ROADS.

1870, c. 187 repeals 1868, c. 363, and enacts as follows:

1870, c. 187, s. 1.
Road districts
and supervisors.

101. The county commissioners of Montgomery county are authorized and directed to divide the several election districts of Montgomery county into as many road districts, and alter the same from time to time as they may deem expedient, and to appoint one supervisor for each of said road districts at their first meeting in the month of April, in each and every year.

Ibid. s. 2 Supervisors to report to commissioners.

102. Each supervisor appointed under the provisions of this act is hereby required to report to the county commissioners, at their first meeting in the month of May, what repairs are necessary to be made on the public roads and bridges in his road district.
