

and belong to and become part of the income of said corporation, to be by them appropriated for the improvement of roads within the limits of said corporation.

203. The commissioners may by ordinance provide for levying and collecting annually a tax of fifty cents on every dog, and one dollar on every bitch, within said town; and the killing of every dog and bitch, whose owner shall refuse to pay said tax, or who shall fail to do so within one month from the time he or she shall be called upon to do so.

Ibid. s. 20.
Tax on dogs.

204. The commissioners may, by ordinance, prohibit the firing of guns and pistols in said town, and may prohibit the tumultuous and irregular meetings of idle and dissolute persons, and shall give general directions to the bailiff to disperse the same by fair and lawful means.

Ibid. s. 21.
Tumultuous meetings, &c.

205. Said commissioners may pass ordinances to prevent horses and swine from running at large within the limits of said town.

Ibid. s. 22.
Horses not to run at large.

206. No person shall permit his or her hog or hogs to run at large within the limits of said town, and if any hog or hogs shall be found running at large therein, the bailiff shall forthwith seize and impound the same, and shall immediately give notice thereof by public advertisement, and if the owner shall not, within three days thereafter, pay said bailiff fifty cents for every day of impounding any hog, the bailiff shall sell the same at public sale, and after deducting one dollar for every hog, shall pay the purchase money to the treasurer of said town.

Ibid. s. 23.
Bailiff to impound hogs running at large.

Penalty.

207. On the same day on which commissioners are to be elected under this act, and on every first Monday in April, in each and every year thereafter, one person, a legal voter in said town, shall be elected by a majority of the voters of said town, as treasurer of said corporation, whose duty it shall be to keep an account of the receipts and disbursements of the funds of the corporation in a well-bound book, to be provided by the commissioners for that purpose, and shall annually

Ibid. s. 24.
Election of treasurer.