

sufficient recognizance before the justice, to prosecute his appeal with effect.

Right of removal of cause.

146. Any person arrested under section one hundred and forty-three of this article, who shall before the justice before whom he shall be taken, make oath that he believes that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had before any justice of the peace of the Tangier district, may have his case removed to a justice of Dames Quarter district.

Indictment.

147. Any person who shall violate the provisions of section one hundred and thirty-nine of this article, shall be liable to indictment in the circuit court for Somerset county or may be tried before a justice of the peace, but no person shall [be] twice prosecuted for the same offence.

Vote on liquor law.

148. At the election to be held in November next, an election shall be held in said Tangier district for or against the provisions of this act, at which every qualified voter in said district shall be entitled to vote for or against a prohibitory liquor law, the result of which election shall be returned and certified according to law and if at said election, a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of a prohibitory liquor law, then this act shall be and remain in force, but if a majority of the votes cast at said election in said district, shall be against a prohibitory liquor law, then the governor shall by proclamation make known the said result, and from and after the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the provisions of this act shall cease; and be inoperative in the same manner as if the same had not been enacted.
