

confinement within the corporation which the burgess and commissioners may provide; if said offender shall fail or refuse to pay the fine, penalty, or forfeiture and costs, there to remain until the same is paid or until discharged, as hereinafter provided; and the sheriff of the county shall receive and safe keep such person according to the tenor of the commitment, and shall be entitled to his usual fees therefor, and the burgess or justice who may have directed such commitment, may order any person so committed to be discharged; provided, such commitment shall not inure for more than thirty days, and the corporation shall be liable to all jail fees of persons so committed.

Sheriff to keep prisoner.

Proviso.

Ibid. s. 2.
Constable.

Bond.

Collector.

Ibid. s. 3.
Other officers.

Ibid. s. 5
Duration of charter.

Sub-Sec. 2. The burgess and commissioners shall have power to appoint a constable for said town, with such compensation as may be allowed by general law, who shall give bond in a sufficient amount to indemnify said town against any loss, who shall also be a collector of taxes imposed by the corporation, who shall have power to collect the same by distress upon either real or personal property, as collectors of county taxes.

Sub-Sec. 3. The burgess and commissioners of said town shall have power to appoint all other officers not herein named, who may be deemed necessary to execute the powers of said corporation and the laws thereof.

Sub-Sec. 4. The charter of said corporation and its amendments shall continue in full force and effect until repealed by special act of legislation, on petition of three-fourths of the legal voters of said town.

Approved March 2, 1870.

SMITHSBURG.

1870, c. 178 repeals and re-enacts section 296 and 312 as follows:

1870, 178.
Corporate limits.

296. The limits of said town for all purposes except taxation by the laws of said corporation shall be as follows: beginning in the middle of the public road leading from Smithsburg to the town of Leitersburg,