

Record to be kept. deposit a copy of the same, with the date and time of such test, accompanying therewith an affidavit verifying its correctness, with the clerk of the county in which he may reside, to be by him recorded in a book kept for that purpose; and every surveyor neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars, to be recovered with costs as debts of like character are recovered before any justice of the peace in the county, to be applied to such county uses as the county commissioners may direct.

Ibid s. 4. 112. For recording each certificate of variations and affidavits of the correctness of the same appended, and for copies or abstracts of the same, and for drawing certificate and seal therefor, the county clerk shall be allowed the same fees as are now allowed by law for similar services in regard to matters of record in his office, the said fees to be paid by the parties presenting the same for record, or demanding abstracts or copies as aforesaid.

Clerks' fees.

Ibid s. 5. 113. Any person or persons who shall wilfully erase, deface, displace or otherwise injure said pillars, or any part thereof, or destroy, break down or carry away the enclosure aforesaid, or any lock, bolt, bar, or any part thereof, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars.

Penalty for injury to meridian standard

Ibid s. 6. 114. The commissioners of any county adopting the provisions of this act are hereby authorized to provide for the payment of the costs of carrying out its provisions in the same manner that other county expenses are paid.

How costs paid.

Approved April 4, 1870.

1870, c. 233 repeals section 9 of Article XXVIII, of the Public General Laws, relating to the publication of county expenses, so far as the same relates to Caroline county, and re-enacts the same with amendments. [See Public Local Laws, Art. VI, Caroline County, sub-title County Commissioners ]