

NOTE—s. 1, of the act of 1864, c. 13, is identical with s. 1 of the act of 1862, c. 138. The acts of 1861, c. 5; 1862, c. 178; and 1864, c. 3, authorizing the suspension of specie payments by banks, expired by limitation on March 11, 1866.

1870, c. 206, entitled "an act to create state banking institutions to enable the several banks in this state—state and national—to avail of the provisions thereof," enacts ss. arranged in sup. as sects. 25 to 37, both inclusive, and articles 1 to 21, both inclusive, and repeals all acts and parts of acts inconsistent therewith; and to continue in force until the 1st of January, 1885, and to the end of the next session of the General Assembly thereafter. Sup. 1870, p. 17.

1874, c. 406, repeals article 21, of act of 1870, c. 206, and all other acts imposing a tax of twenty cents on each one hundred dollars of the capital stock of state banks for the augmentation of the free school fund of this state, and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and enacts a s. as a substitute therefor.

1874, c. 74, repeals the fifth and ninth sections of the act of 1853, c. 441, entitled "an act to continue the corporate existence of the several banking institutions therein named," and re-enacts the same with amendments, and adds a section thereto; and repeals all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act.

NATIONAL BANKS.

1865, c. 144, enacts sects. numbered 20 to 24, both inclusive, under this sub-title. Sup. 1861, '67, p. 25.

1874, c. 499, provides for the assessment of the shares of the capital stock of national banks located in this state, heretofore omitted to be assessed for state purposes, and for collecting the state taxes due on said shares.
