

six per cent. interest, redeemable in not less than ten, nor more than fifteen years.

1874, c. 469, creates a fund to be called "the Normal school loan," and authorizes the issuing of bonds or certificates of debt to an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, bearing six per cent. interest, and redeemable in not less than ten, nor more than fifteen years.

For acts making sundry appropriations, growing out of the war of 1861, see note, page 100, of sup. 1861, '67.

See 1874, c. 483, ss. 45, 97, 103, under article 81, "Revenue and Taxes."

ARTICLE ———.

Domestic Insurance Companies.

1868, c. 294, entitled an act to add a new article to the code of public general laws, to be entitled "Domestic Insurance Companies," providing for annual reports of the condition of the several insurance companies incorporated under the laws of this state, and doing business within the limits thereof, enacts sects. 1 and 2. Sup. 1868, p. 110.

1870, c. 257, repeals 1868, c. 294, and re-enacts same with amendments. Sup. 1870, p. 57.

ARTICLE ———.

Drift Logs.

1870, c. 229, entitled an act for the protection of the owners of land bordering upon the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries, enacts sects. 1 to 7, and repeals all acts inconsistent therewith. Sup. 1870, p. 60.

See 1872, c. 258, entitled an act for the better protection of land owners bordering on the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries.
