

to that of the officer examined; the commander-in-chief may also, when in his opinion it is necessary, call boards of officers for settling military questions, and for other purposes of good order or discipline.

Id s 20.
Pay and rations

20. The militia when called into active service shall be allowed the same pay and rations as the regular troops of the United States Army; and the rations when commuted shall be fixed by the army regulations in force at the time.

Id s 21
Armories

21. The commander-in-chief may authorize the commanding officers of such regiments, batteries, battalions, squadrons or companies, of the volunteer militia, duly organized and uniformed, as he shall think fit, to rent suitable and convenient places for armories and places of drill and deposit, and safekeeping of arms, equipments and other property, furnished by the State for military purposes to said regiments, batteries, battalions, squadrons or companies; provided, the rent to be paid per annum shall not exceed the following sums, viz.: For each regiment the sum of four hundred dollars, for each battery, of four pieces of artillery, the sum of four hundred dollars; for each battalion the sum of two hundred dollars; for each squadron the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars; and for each independent company the sum of one hundred dollars; provided, that no rent shall be paid for any regiment having a less number of rank and file than three hundred; for any battalion having a less number than one hundred and fifty, for any company having a less number than forty, or for any squadron having a less number than eighty, of rank and file, uniformed and fit for active duty, and provided that said payments shall be chargeable only to the appropriations made by law for military purposes, and the accounts shall be audited and settled at the treasury, as is now provided for contracts and expenditures for military purposes.

Rent

Id s 22
Certificate of membership.

22. All certificates of membership of any legally organized volunteer company of the militia shall be signed by the commanding officer thereof, which certificates shall be issued on or before the first day of April in each year, to such persons as may then compose the uniformed and active members of said company; every such company may receive and have as many honorary members as it has active and uniformed members, and no more, on payment in advance by each person desiring to become such honorary member, of not less than ten dollars per annum, which said money shall be received by the commanding officer of the company and be by him applied to the payment of armory rent or the purchase of uniforms for the rank and file of the active members of his company, or to such purposes as may be authorized by the by-laws of said company; and the commanding officer of every company shall, on or before the first day of June and December of every year, render to the adjutant-general an account of the money so received and expended by him, and every such honorary member shall be entitled to receive a certificate of honorary membership of the company, to

Honorary members

Certificate.