

86. The county commissioners of each county shall determine at least sixty days prior to each election of road supervisors, the amount of compensation or salary each supervisor shall be entitled to receive, taking into consideration in estimating a fair compensation, the reasonable amount of labor and supervision to be performed in each district; but such compensation or salary shall not be increased or diminished unless the appropriations or expenditures for roads in said election districts shall be increased or diminished during his term of office.

Id s 10.
1853, c 300, s 6
Compensation

87. Each road supervisor shall annually, at such time as the county commissioners of his county shall determine, report to them on oath, the general condition of the roads and bridges under his supervision, the amount of money or labor, or both, expended or performed on said roads and bridges, in the employment of deputies, agents, contractors, laborers, and materials, and such other matters relative thereto as the county commissioners shall suggest and require.

Id s 11
1853, c 300, s 5
To report to county commissioners.

88. Upon such report being made in the manner prescribed by the county commissioners, and upon the county commissioners, or a majority of them, being satisfied that said road supervisor has fully discharged his duty as such, and not before, they shall pay or cause to be paid to said supervisor or order, the amount of compensation which shall have been determined by them.

Id s 12
1853, c 300, s 5
Time of payment of compensation.

89. Each supervisor shall have power to employ any person as deputy supervisor or agent, that he may deem necessary

Id s 13
1853, c 300, s 2
Employment of deputies

90. Where public roads form dividing lines between election districts, the county commissioners shall divide the said roads between the supervisors of the contiguous election districts, as they may deem right.

Id s 14
1853, c 300, s 7.
Roads, forming dividing lines,
how allotted

91. Every supervisor shall be liable to be presented by the grand jury of his county, for any neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, and shall upon conviction thereof before the Circuit Court of his county, be fined in each case not less than five or more than twenty-five dollars, in the discretion of the court; provided, that the road supervisors in those counties where the county commissioners make the appropriation and levy for roads in advance of the expenditure by the supervisors shall not be required or authorized to expend in the repair of roads within their respective districts, a larger sum per mile than shall have been levied by the county commissioners for that purpose.

1862, c 201
Liability of road supervisor
for malfeasance
in office
Penalty Proviso.

92. The county commissioners shall have power to revoke the commission of any road supervisor at any time during his term of office, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, and shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur from any cause in the office of road supervisor for the remainder of the term that shall become vacant.

Art 90, s 16
1853, c 300, s 10
Revocation of commission

Vacancy.

93. It shall be the duty of the supervisors of roads, to remove all trees, trash or gravel which may lodge against or near any bridge,

Id s 17
1704, c 21, s 6,
1784, c 52, s 9,