Remedies of principal against agent.

13. Nothing contained in this article shall deprive any principal or owner of goods, wares, or merchandise, of any remedy at law or in equity, which he might have against his agent or factor on any matter or contract between them, or for the violation of any engagement, duty, or debt, for which such agent or factor has heretofore been liable at law and in equity, subject, nevertheless, to the right of such agent or factor to be allowed the benefit of any payments of any debt or damages received and paid from and on such contracts as aforesaid by any other person or body corporate.

Mortgage,
pledge, etc,
by consignee of
agricultural productions,
void.

14. Every mortgage, pledge, deposit, or other disposal by said commission merchant, factor, agent, bailee, or consignee of such agricultural productions thus consigned for sale alone, unless with the consent of the grower, producer, or other owner, expressly given, shall be null and void, and no title to said articles or any of them shall pass to the person receiving the same, but the title thereto shall remain in the grower, producer, or other consignor thereof as if no such mortgage, pledge, deposit, or other disposal had been made.

Agricultural
productions, in insolvent
agent's hands,
not to pass to his trustee

15. Whenever any commission merchant, factor, agent, or other consignee, shall be discharged under the insolvent laws of this State, no agricultural produce which may have been consigned to him for sale, and which may be on hand at the time of his application and discharge not sold to a fair and bonâ fide purchaser for a valuable consideration, shall pass to the trustee of said insolvent, or be in any wise answerable for his debts, but all such agricultural produce so on hand at the time of such application and discharge shall be the property of the grower, producer, or other owner who shall have consigned the same

Lien of agent for advances on agricultural
productions

16. Nothing contained in the last three preceding sections shall in any manner impair any right of lien which any commission merchant, factor, or agent may have acquired or be entitled to for advances bonâ fide made, either in money or goods, to any such grower, producer, or owner, on the faith and security of such consignment, but such right of lien shall remain as at common law and mercantile usage.
