 Owners of three-fourths of capital stock to decide whether to change to a
 national bank

2. Before any bank, savings institution, or savings bank of this State shall avail itself of the provisions of this act, and of the aforesaid act of Congress, its stockholders, by and with the written advice and consent of the owners of three-fourths of the capital stock of said bank, savings institution, or savings bank, or at a special meeting called for the purpose, shall decide whether the said bank, savings institution, or savings bank, shall or shall not become an association for the purpose of banking under the laws of the United States, and at said meeting every stockholder may cast one vote for each share of stock held by him or her, and every stockholder who shall be absent from said meeting may vote by proxy, and every executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee holding stock in said bank, savings institution, or savings bank, may vote in person or by proxy, without incurring any responsibility by such vote, and the treasurer of Maryland is hereby authorized and directed to represent and vote the stock held by the State in any of the banks, savings institution, or savings bank of this State, and if, on casting up the vote at the said meeting, it shall appear that the owners of two-thirds of the capital stock of said bank, savings institution, or savings bank, are in favor of converting the said bank, savings institution, or savings bank into an association for the purpose of banking under the laws of the United States, the directors of said bank, savings institution, or savings bank, or a majority of them, may execute the organization certificate, and such other papers as shall be necessary, and may perform all acts required by law for enabling the said bank, savings institution, or savings bank to become such association
