JUDGES AND CLERKS OF ELECTION.

1874, c 229
County commissioners, when and how to appoint judges of election.

1. The county commissioners in each county shall annually appoint three persons for each election district, or precinct of the county, residents of such district or precinct, who, or a majority, or only one of whom in case of the non-attendance of the other two, shall be judges of the election for such district or precinct, from the time of their appointment, until a new appointment be made, and it shall be the duty of said county commissioners of said counties, in making their appointments for said judges of elections, to select at least one of said judges for each election district and precinct in their respective counties, from among those of a different political party from themselves, or a majority of themselves.
