8. Whenever the Orphans' Court, for any cause, shall revoke the guardianship of any guardian, and there be no remaining guardian, they shall appoint a new guardian; and if the party whose guardianship is revoked shall not, within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court, deliver over to the remaining guardian (if there be one, if not, then to the new guardian) all the property of the ward remaining in the hands of the party whose guardianship is revoked, and also all the books, bonds, notes, and evidences of debt or funds, and also all title to property or stock which belong to, or are due to the ward, in the possession of the guardian, and also pay over to the remaining guardian (if there be one, if not, then to the new guardian) all the money due to said ward, the said court may compel the delivery and payment over as aforesaid, by attachment and sequestration of the property of the party whose guardianship may be revoked, and may direct his bond to be put in suit.
