

92d. Work done and materials provided by O H , in his lifetime, Work done, etc for the defendant, at his request.

93d. And the form may be the same as between the original parties, adding proper words to show that the transaction occurred with the decedent. Form of statement.

Commencement of Declarations against Executors and Administrators.

94th. A. B., by his attorney (or in person, as the case may be), Commencement of declarations against executors and administrators 34 Md 99. sues C. D., executor of the last will (or administrator of the goods, chattels, etc ), of P. S., deceased, for (here state the cause of action).

Conclusion of Declarations against Executors and Administrators.

95th. And the plaintiff claims $—— (or if the action be to recover specific goods), the plaintiff claims a return of the said goods, or their value, and $—— for their detention. Conclusion of same

Statement of Causes of Action against Executors and Administrators.

96th. Causes of action may be stated against executors and administrators in the same manner as if they were the original parties thereto, except that proper words must be used to show that the claim was against the deceased in his lifetime. How causes of action may be stated against same.

Commencement of Pleas by Executors and Administrators.

97th. The defendant, executor of the last will (or administrator of the goods and chattels) of P. S , deceased, by S T., his attorney (or in person), says (here state the substance of the plea). Pleas by same 98th. And for a second plea the defendant says (here state the second plea). Second plea.

Pleas in Action by Executors and Administrators.

99th. That the defendant has fully administered the goods and chattels, rights and credits of the said P. S., deceased, and had done so before this suit. Pleas administered.

100th. That before this suit, and after the lapse of one year from the date of his letters testamentary (or of administration), the defendant paid away, in discharge of just claims, all the assets of the said P. S , deceased, which had come to his hands ; and that, more than six months before he so paid, he gave notice to the creditors of P. S. to bring in their claims. And that at the time of such payment he had no notice or knowledge of the alleged claim, and that, since said payment, no further assets have come to his hands. Assets paid away after notice to creditors without notice of claim.

101st. That before this suit, and after the lapse of one year from the date of his letters testamentary (or of administration), the de- Same