

turned to correct the same forthwith, noting at the end thereof the corrections so made, or to prepare a new transcript of the said record, which shall be corrected in all its parts.

114. The court to which any imperfect transcript is sent shall have power to order the delivery thereof to the clerk of the court from which the case was removed as often as may be necessary to the perfection of said transcript as a true copy of the record in the case, and the court to which such case is removed shall proceed with the trial thereof at as early a day as may be, and all recognizances and other proceedings had in the court to which the case is removed, shall be as good and valid as if the transcript of the record originally transmitted had been correct in all its parts.

Id s 80
1853, c 10
Same

All recognizances and other proceedings valid.

115. In all civil cases which may be removed to another county under the provisions of this article, and in which a final judgment may be obtained, the clerk of the court in which such judgment may be obtained, shall, on application of the plaintiff therein issue exception on said judgment or decree against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, rights and credits of any defendant, lying in the county or city in which said case shall have been originally instituted, or if the judgment is for the defendant he may have the same remedy.

Id s 81
1856, c 322, s 1
Execution in removed cases

116. Any such execution shall be directed to and served by the sheriff or coroner, as the case may be, of the county or city in which the case was originally instituted, and returned to the Circuit Court for the county of which he is sheriff, or the Superior Court of Baltimore City, if in said city, and it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to entitle himself to the benefit of such execution, to produce before the court to which the same shall be returnable, a short copy of the judgment by him obtained, attested by the clerk of the court before which the same is had.

Id s 82
1856, c 322, s 2
To whom directed and returned

117. Every court to which any cause may be removed shall have power to issue a warrant of re-survey, order, or other process to the sheriff, surveyor or other officer, of the county from which such cause has been removed, or to the sheriff or other officer of any other county; and the sheriff, surveyor, or other officer shall be bound to execute and obey the same, in the same manner as if issued from the Circuit Court of the county from which such cause was removed, or of the county in which such sheriff, surveyor or other officer may reside; and upon neglect of any sheriff, surveyor, or other officer to execute and obey such warrant of re-survey, order, or other process, the court in which such cause is pending, and to which such warrant of re-survey, order, or other process is returnable, shall, on motion and proof of delivery thereof, amerce such sheriff, surveyor, or other officer not exceeding two hundred dollars, and enter judgment against him in the name of the State, but for the use of the party aggrieved by such neglect, who may issue execution thereon as upon other judgments.

Id s 83.
1815, c 149, ss 1, 2
Court to have power, in removed cases, to issue warrant of re-survey, or other process, to officers of other counties.

Neglect of officers to execute.