 Who an absconding debtor, and what a sufficient averment of absconding.

1. Every person, and every body corporate that has the right to become a plaintiff in any action or proceeding before any judicial tribunal in this State, shall have the right to become a plaintiff in an attachment against a non-resident of this State, or against a person absconding.

2. Every person who doth not reside in this State, and every person who absconds, may be made a defendant in an attachment; and any corporation not chartered by this State, or any corporation chartered by this State, but not having the president or a majority of the directors or managers thereof residing in this State, may be made a defendant as other non-residents.

3. Every person who shall actually run away, abscond, or fly from justice, or secretly remove himself from his place of abode with intention to evade the payment of his just debts, or to injure or defraud his creditors, shall be considered as having absconded; and an averment in the oath of the plaintiff against a person as having
