

that purpose in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, if the principal office of said corporation is located therein, or in the Circuit Court of any county, if the principal office or place of business of said corporation be therein located, or if the certificate of its incorporation be recorded therein, and such bill may be filed by any stockholder, shareholder, or creditor of said corporation, or by the attorney-general of the State of Maryland, or by the State's attorney of the city and county in which the principal office of said corporation is located. But this section shall not apply to any railroad company chartered by this State.

Not to apply to railroad company chartered by State

11. Whenever the directors, trustees, or managers of any corporation, or a majority of them, shall, for any reason, deem it beneficial for the interest of the stockholders or others interested in said corporation, that the same should be dissolved, they shall call a general meeting of the stockholders, shareholders, or members of the corporation at such time and place, and after such notice as the by-laws of said company shall prescribe for that purpose, and if at such general meeting a majority in interest of all the stockholders in any corporation having a capital stock, or a majority of the shareholders or members in any other class of corporations, shall, by their votes, declare their wish that said corporation shall be dissolved, a bill for its dissolution shall forthwith be filed in the name of said corporation and on its behalf in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City, if its principal office or place of business is in said city, or in the Circuit Court of the county in which its principal office or place of business may be situate.

Id s 186
Proceedings.
44 Md. 380

Bill for dissolution

12. Every such bill shall contain a statement of the reasons why the dissolution of the said corporation is prayed for and sought, and there shall also be filed with it :

Id s 187.
What bill to contain

First. A full and true inventory of all the assets of such corporation, and of all the books, securities and vouchers relating thereto.

Inventory of assets

Second. A true account of the capital stock of such corporation, and a list of all the stockholders, their residences, and the number of shares belonging to each, the amount paid on each of said shares, and the amount still due.

Capital stock and list of stockholders, etc.

Third. A statement of all the incumbrances on the property of the corporation, and a full list of all its creditors and their respective residences, and the amount due to each. All of the said statements shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of either the president, treasurer, secretary, or some other chief officer, or of some stockholder of the said corporation.

Incumbrances and creditors

Statements to be under oath.

13. Upon the filing of said bill accompanied by the aforesaid papers, the court shall pass an order requiring all persons interested in such corporations to show cause, if any they have, why such corporation should not be dissolved, on or before a certain day to be named in said order, which order shall be published for such time as the court shall direct, in some newspaper published in the county, or city of Baltimore, as the case may be, in which such

Id s 188
Court to pass order to show cause

To be published