LARCENY.

38. Every person convicted of the crime of simple larceny to the value of five dollars or upwards, or as accessory thereto before the fact, shall restore the money, goods, or things taken, to the owner, or shall pay to him the full value thereof, and be sentenced to the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than fifteen years.

39. Any person convicted in the Criminal Court of Baltimore of larceny committed in Baltimore city to an amount under five dollars, may, in the discretion of the judge of the said court, be sentenced to hard labor in the jail of Baltimore city for not less than six months, nor more than two years, instead of the penitentiary.

40. Every person who shall be convicted of the crime of stealing any ship, sloop, or other vessel, of seventeen feet keel or upwards, out of any place within the body of any county, or on the Chesapeake bay, within the jurisdiction of the State of Maryland, and not within the body of any county; or of the crime of counselling, hiring, aiding, or commanding any person to commit either of said offences, or of the crime of being accessory thereto, shall restore the vessel to the owner thereof, or pay him the full value thereof, and also be sentenced to the penitentiary for not more than twelve years nor less than eighteen months.

41. If any person shall feloniously steal, take, and carry away the personal goods of another under the value of five dollars; or if any person shall break into any shop, storehouse, tobacco-house or warehouse, although the same be not contiguous to or used with any mansion-house, and steal any money, goods, or chattels, under the value of one dollar, the same order and course of trial shall be had and observed as for other simple larcenies, and being thereof convicted, he shall be deemed guilty of petty larceny, and shall restore the goods and chattels so stolen, or pay the full value thereof to the owner thereof, and be further sentenced to the penitentiary, or to the jail of the county in which the offence may have been committed, or of the city of Baltimore, if the offence be committed in said city, in the discretion of the court, for not more than eighteen months

42. Robbery or larceny of any obligation or bond, bill obligatory, or bill of exchange, bank note or notes, promissory note for the payment of money, check, or order drawn on any bank of this State, or any other State, paper bill of credit, certificate granted by or under the authority of this State, or of the United States, or any of them, or of any last will and testament, or codicil, shall be punished in the same manner as robbery or larceny of goods and chattels.

43. The taking and carrying away of corn from the stalk, of the quantity of a peck or more, or the taking and carrying away of willows from the stump of the weight of five pounds or more, with a
