

dred dollars, to and for the use of the said penitentiary, to be recovered in the name of the State.

Id s 5
1837, c 320, s 4,
1838, c 400, s 1
Appointment of officers.

5. The board of directors shall annually appoint an assistant warden, a bookkeeper, physician, and matron, and as many superintendents, deputy keepers, guards, or other officers, as they may deem necessary for the service of the institution, and shall also regulate and determine their respective salaries and duties as far as may be consistent with law, or the rules hereinafter established, and shall prescribe the oaths to be taken by all the officers, or other persons officially connected with the institution, before entering upon their respective duties.

Id s 6
1837, c 320, s 11
False swearing
by officers, perjury

6. If any person employed in said penitentiary shall, in taking the oath prescribed by said directors, swear falsely, he shall, upon conviction thereof in due course of law, suffer as in cases of wilful and corrupt perjury; and any officer who shall act in his office before taking said oath and filing bond as required, shall, upon conviction thereof in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, forfeit the sum of two hundred dollars, to be recovered and applied as directed in the preceding sections.

Acting before taking oath and filing bond

Id s 7
1837, c 320, s 10,
1845, c 101, s 2
Bonds of officers

7. The warden and the other officers, guards, and superintendents employed in the penitentiary, before entering upon the discharge of their respective duties, shall execute bonds to the State with security to be approved by the board of directors, and in no manner connected with the management of said penitentiary, the warden in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and the other officers, guards, and superintendents in such penalty and with such security as the board of directors may deem proper, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of them respectively by the laws of this State, and the rules and regulations that may be adopted from time to time for the government of the said penitentiary, and the said bonds shall be filed in the executive department of the State, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the State, shall be evidence in actions on said bonds or any of them; and if either of the officers aforesaid shall neglect to execute bond as herein prescribed, or neglect to take the oath prescribed by the directors, within twenty days after notice of his or her appointment, another person shall be appointed in place of the said delinquent.

Id s 8
1828, c 65;
1845, c 101, s 2.
Directors to fix salaries and define duties of officers

8. The directors shall fix the amount of the salaries to be paid to the deputy warden, police and other officers, guards, and superintendents employed in the penitentiary, shall define their respective duties, and take from them respectively the bond required by the preceding section.

1878, c. 74.
Salary of warden.

9. The warden shall receive a salary at the rate of two thousand dollars per year, and shall be allowed subsistence, fuel, and the occupancy of such parts of the front buildings as a dwelling as are not used for purposes of the penitentiary, and all necessary out-houses, yards and grounds not within the walls of the prison proper,