

21. They shall, within thirty days after the end of each fiscal year of the institution, transmit to the comptroller of the State an accurate detailed statement of all its receipts and disbursements during the year immediately preceding, including the receipts from the treasury; and if there be any surplus in the receipts over the expenditures, shall pay the same over to the treasurer of the State.

Id s 21
1852, c 151, s 4
Statement to comptroller

22. They shall, at the time of making their annual report to the executive, as required in the next succeeding section, transmit to that officer a similar statement to that required to be made to the comptroller; and the statements required to be made in this and the preceding sections, shall be duly sworn to by the warden and clerk of the penitentiary, before some justice of the peace of the city of Baltimore.

Id s 22
1852, c 151, s 5
Statement to the executive

Affidavit

23. They shall make a report every year, in the month of December, to the governor, showing the expenses, profits, loss, receipts, disbursements, condition and progress of the said penitentiary, together with a statement of the number of prisoners, their age, sex, color, place of nativity, and conviction, offence, term of confinement, escapes, pardons, and discharges, accompanied by such remarks and suggestions as may appear necessary to the advancement of the interests of the establishment, and to possess the people of a general knowledge of its concerns; and the governor shall communicate said report to the legislature, with such recommendations as he may think expedient

Id s 23
1837, c 320, s 15.
Report to the governor

24. The Criminal Court of Baltimore shall, at each term, charge the grand jury attending to inquire into the conduct and management of the warden, assistant warden, and officers of the penitentiary, and make presentments of all offences and omissions of the said warden, assistant warden, and officers in relation to the said penitentiary; and the said court shall, at the terms aforesaid, direct a number not exceeding six of the said grand jurors, to visit and examine the said penitentiary.

Id s 24
1837, c 320, s 13
Grand jury to visit penitentiary each term.

25. The directors may allow female convicts to bring with them into the penitentiary their infant children; and the directors shall have the power to bind such children as apprentices, as directed in Article LIV of this Code relating to apprentices.

Id s 25
1845, c 83, s 3
Female convicts may bring with them their infant children.
Children to be bound out.

26. No person having any connection with the Maryland Penitentiary shall receive from any convict therein, either by devise or otherwise, any property, real, personal, or mixed; and any property so devised or bequeathed, shall, notwithstanding such devise or bequest, be divided among the legal heirs of such convict, according to the laws of this State.

Id s 26.
1837, c 320, s 28
No person connected with penitentiary to receive property from convict

27. Any money, bank notes or chattel property employed, used, or attempted to be used or introduced within or about the buildings, yards, or inclosure of the said penitentiary for the purpose of rescuing or procuring the release of any convict confined in the said penitentiary, shall be forfeited thereby to the use of the State, and the directors shall take possession thereof and appropriate the same,

Id s 27
1831, c 208, s 7,
1837, c 320, s 23
Property introduced to aid escape of convicts forfeited.