

regiment or battalion, or independent company to which he belongs, or by other proper authorities thereof, pursuant to its by-laws.

1886, ch. 162, sec. 5.

30. Any member of said organizations committing any of the offences mentioned in section 29, shall be liable to and forfeit and pay the following fines and penalties, viz: (a) for neglect or refusal to attend any assembly of his regiment, battalion or company, ordered by the respective commandants thereof, the sum of fifty cents for each offence; (b) for each and every neglect or refusal to attend any assembly of his regiment, battalion or company on the occasion of the law or public parades ordered by the commander-in-chief, as directed by this article, the sum of two dollars; (c) for every day of non-attendance at any encampment ordered by the commander-in-chief, or by the commandant of such regiment or battalion or independent company, the sum of fifty cents; (d) for each and every other offence specified in said section, the sum of one dollar; (e) every officer guilty of any of the offences or neglects above set forth shall be subject to a fine of twice the amount which would be payable by an enlisted man for the same offence; no excuse shall be valid for any of the above-mentioned absences from such assemblies, except bona fide absence from the city or place when such assemblies are ordered, sickness of the member, (such as would prevent attention to ordinary pursuits,) sickness of family requiring his personal care, or recent domestic affliction.

Ibid. sec. 6.

31. The board of officers of said regiment, battalion or company, constituted according to the constitution and by-laws thereof, shall be a court-martial for the trial of such offences and the imposition of said fines; and the offender shall be entitled to a hearing before said court-martial; upon the imposition of said fine or fines by said board of officers, the same shall be and become at once payable; in case any delinquent shall fail, refuse or neglect to pay all such fines so imposed on him, within ten days after he has been notified thereof, the said fines so imposed may be collected in the name of the State before any justice of the peace of the county or city where said delinquent may reside,