

said organization above designated, and enrolled, enlisted and organized as above provided.

1886, ch. 162, sec. 14.

38. Whatever sum of money is now or may be hereafter appropriated by the general assembly of Maryland, for the use and benefit of said Maryland national guard, shall be distributed under and by the direction of the governor, the commander-in-chief, to each company of said Maryland national guard which shall have complied with the requirements of law, in equal proportion, without distinction; and it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of each of said companies to receive the share of said money to which his said company may be entitled, and to make quarterly reports under oath to the said adjutant general, setting forth the details of the disbursement of said money.

Ibid. sec. 15.

39. The commanding officer of each company shall give a good and sufficient bond to the State of Maryland, to be approved by the adjutant general, for the full and true performance of his duties under section 38, as such disbursing officer.

Ibid. sec. 16.

40. If said disbursing officer shall fail to fully and properly report to the adjutant general said quarterly payment to him by the succeeding quarter day, then it shall be the duty of the governor, the commander-in-chief, to direct the withholding of any further payment of said money to said commanding officer until said officer shall report as aforesaid to the adjutant general.

1888, ch. 239, sec.

41. At any time, upon the report and recommendation of the brigade commander, after an inspection by him ordered or made of any company forming a part of said Maryland national guard, that such company so inspected is not up to the proper standard of efficiency or discipline, the commander-in-chief may, in his discretion, muster out of the service such company so reported inefficient, and thereupon the commissions of all the officers of such company shall be vacated.

Ibid. sec. 3.

42. The adjutant general shall keep a separate account with each organization of the said Maryland national guard, showing
