

1886, ch. 296, sec. 28.

30. The deputy commanders of the steamers are hereby required to keep their vessels constantly on duty, when circumstances will permit; and every locality where a violation of the law is likely to occur shall be visited as often as the duties of the force and condition of the vessels will allow, and every three months a report shall be made to the board of public works of all official action taken under this article.

Ibid. sec. 29.

31. It shall be the duty of the deputy commanders of the sloops to confine themselves ordinarily to their several districts; but it shall be their duty also to enforce any of the provisions of this article in any water adjacent to their district, when a violation of the same shall come to their knowledge.

Ibid. sec. 30.

32. The commanding officer and the deputy commanders of said force shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, take before one of the judges of the circuit courts the oath prescribed by the constitution; and the commanding officer of said force shall enter into bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and each deputy commander in the sum of three thousand dollars, to be approved by one of said judges, for the faithful performance of their duties as prescribed in this article; the said bond or bonds to be filed with the comptroller.

Ibid. sec. 31.

33. The salary of the commander shall be fifteen hundred dollars, and the salary of deputy commanders in charge of steamers shall be one thousand dollars per annum; and they shall have power to appoint one officer at a salary of six hundred dollars per annum; one engineer or machinist at eight hundred dollars per annum, and one assistant at a salary of five hundred dollars per annum; two seamen at twenty-five dollars per month, and two at twenty dollars per month; two firemen at twenty-five dollars per month; one steward and one cook at twenty dollars per month each; and each deputy commander of sloops or vessels shall receive a salary of eight hundred dollars per annum; he shall have the power to appoint one officer at a salary of five hundred and fifty dollars
