Dredging in Craighill Channel.

1870, ch. 405. 1882, ch. 14.

44. Any person dragging, raking or dredging for oysters within five hundred yards of either edge of the new channel at the mouth of the Patapsco river, known as the "Craighill Channel," extending from the seven-foot knoll to the mouth of the Magothy river, or within five hundred yards of either edge of the cut-off connecting the Brewerton and Craighill channels, shall forfeit his boat or vessel; and it shall be lawful for any justice of the peace of the county or city in which such person shall be arrested to try such person, and on conviction to condemn said boat or vessel, and sell the same on five days' notice, and fine the said offender a sum not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every offence; and the said justice of the peace shall pay over one-half of said fines and forfeitures to the informer, and the other half to the school board of said county or city.

Catching Oysters in Potomac River.

1884, ch. 76, sec. 1.

45. It shall not be lawful for any person to take or catch oysters, in any manner whatever, in the waters of the Potomac river, unless he be a citizen of Maryland or Virginia, and shall have been a resident of the State of which he is a citizen, for twelve months immediately preceding; any one violating this section shall be subject to a fine of five hundred dollars; any vessel in which oysters are taken contrary to this section, shall be
