

1888, ch. 513, sec. 9.

75. Any master or person in charge of any of said vessels who shall violate any of the provisions of the eight preceding sections of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon trial and conviction before a justice of the peace or judge of a court having criminal jurisdiction, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and stand committed until fine and costs are paid.

Ibid. sec. 10.

76. The several commissioners appointed for Baltimore city shall be required to engage such clerical assistance, as well as to appoint such number of agents as shall be necessary for the proper expedition of the business of their respective offices, the salaries and expense of said service to be deducted from the fees paid said commissioners; and each commissioner shall make a report, under oath, to the governor, on or before the first day of May in each and every year, stating the number of men that have been shipped and the number of men discharged by him, the amount of fees received, and the general condition of the men when shipped, and their condition when discharged.
