

stationery for the children of the State. If, however, in apportioning the said State school tax among the different counties and the city of Baltimore, the share of any county should prove inadequate for the purposes aforesaid, then the county commissioners of such county are hereby authorized, empowered, directed and required to levy and collect such a tax upon the assessable property of such county as the board of county school commissioners shall designate as sufficient to make good the deficiency; provided, said tax shall not exceed ten cents in the hundred dollars, unless the county commissioners shall approve and sanction an additional tax. The taxes so levied and collected shall be paid quarterly, on the day fixed for the payment of the State school tax to the several counties; but the proceeds from special taxes may be paid oftener, upon the order of the board of county school commissioners, to the treasurer of the said board of county school commissioners, in order that the schools of said counties may be kept open for the time herein set forth; and said tax shall be levied and collected as other taxes. Any sums of money which may have been specially collected or levied on any election or school-house district, for educational purposes connected with these districts, shall be collected for and applied to the purposes so intended originally, and shall be used for no other purpose; and if said funds have been used otherwise, they shall be returned and applied as aforesaid.

23. In all cases where the county has not been properly divided into school districts, and full records of the boundaries thereof have not been made and recorded, the board of county school commissioners shall appoint a committee, if in their opinion they deem it necessary, consisting of three persons of intelligence and sound judgment, who shall divide the county into suitable school districts, define and describe the boundaries of each; provided, that no school district shall contain a greater area than four miles square, unless a part of it be located in a thinly settled region. In the formation of the school districts, the committee shall take into consideration the most suitable site for the school house, the general features of the country, and shall make each school district of such size and form as will best accommodate
