P. G. L., (1860,) art. 15, sec. 16. 1786, ch. 33, sec. 6.

16. If the parties interested have fairly agreed to settle the lines of any land, and have fixed boundaries at the termination of such lines to mark and ascertain as well the direction as the extent of the lines, or if such lines have been settled and ascertained by arbitration, no commissioners shall have authority between the same parties or those claiming under them, or either of them, to vary from the lines so settled, agreed or ascertained.

Ibid. sec. 17. 1786, ch. 33, sec. 6.

17. If any persons shall agree to settle and ascertain the location of their lands, and fix boundaries to the same, such settlement and agreement, and a plot of the lands so settled, may, by consent of the parties interested, be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county, or superior court of Baltimore city, and when recorded shall have the same effect as if the location of such land had been settled by commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 18. 1786, ch. 33, sec. 7.

18. Each commissioner appointed by the court shall be entitled to two dollars per day for each day he shall attend in the execution of the commission; any person acting as surveyor shall receive such per diem allowance as shall be adjudged by the commissioners, not exceeding four dollars per day; each chain carrier shall receive seventy-five cents, and each witness fifty cents for each day they shall respectively attend, to be paid by the person at whose request the service shall be performed, and if necessary, attachment of contempt shall be issued by the court issuing the commission, to compel such payment.
