P. G. L., (1860,) art. 82, sec. 1. 1835, ch. 137, sec. 1.

1. If in any county or incorporated town or city of this State, any church, chapel or convent, any dwelling-house, any house used or designed by any person or any body corporate as a place for the transaction of business or deposit of property, any ship, ship-yard or lumber-yard, any barn, stable or other out-house, or any articles of personal property, shall be injured or destroyed, or if any property therein shall be taken away, injured or destroyed by any riotous or tumultuous assemblage of people, the full amount of the damage so done shall be recoverable by the sufferer or sufferers by suit at law against the county, town or city within whose jurisdiction such riot or tumult occurred.

Ibid. sec. 2. 1835, ch. 137, sec. 1. 1867, ch. 282.

2. No such liability shall be incurred by any county, incorporated town or city, unless the authorities thereof shall have had good reason to believe that such riot or tumultuous assemblage was about to take place, or having taken place, shall have had notice of the same in time to prevent said injury or destruction, either by its own police or with the aid of the citizens of such county, town or city, it being the intention of this article that no such liability shall devolve on such county, town or city, unless the authorities having notice have also the ability of themselves, or with their own citizens, to prevent said injury; and all causes of action under section 1, shall be prosecuted within the period of three years from the time of accrual of the same.
