

execution shall be given by advertisement set up at least ten days before the sale at two public places at least most convenient to such goods and chattels.

Hanson v. Barnes' Lessee, 3 H & J. 359. Nesbitt v. Dallam, 7 G. & J. 494. Moreland v. Bowling, 3 Gill, 500. White v. Malcolm, 15 Md. 544.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 83, sec. 5. 1828, ch. 187.

4. If the editor of a newspaper in any county shall refuse or neglect to publish, on application to him by the sheriff, coroner, elisor or other officer, the notice required to be given by such officer, for the sale of lands or tenements, the same may be given by advertisement set up at least twenty days before the sale, at the court-house door, and other public places of the county in which such property may be; and the said officer shall annex to his return of the writ under which said sale shall be made, a statement on oath of the refusal of said editor to publish said notice in his newspaper; and the demand of an exorbitant price by an editor shall be deemed a refusal.

Ibid. sec. 6. 1847, ch. 334.

5. Any sheriff or other officer who shall, by virtue of any legal process, give notice by publication in any newspaper, of the sale of any lands or tenements, as required by law, may recover the costs of such publication from the defendant in such process, as other legal costs, and if the defendant be unable to pay the same, the sheriff or other officer, after having paid the same, may recover the amount so paid, from the plaintiff, as other debts are collected.

Ibid. sec. 7. 1826, ch. 178.

6. Whenever any judge, justice, commissioner or auditor shall be required by law to direct the publication of any notice or other advertisement in one or more newspapers, he shall direct the place or places in which such notice or advertisement shall be published, the number of papers in which it shall be inserted and the number of insertions in each paper, but shall not name such paper in the order of publication, but leave to the party at whose expense such notice or advertisement is to be published to select the paper and contract for the cost of publication; but when such publication shall be ordered to be made in the city of Baltimore, it shall be published in one or more of the daily newspapers published in said city.