

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 83, sec. 8. 1834, ch. 309, sec. 2.

7. In every case in which notice by publication in a newspaper is required to be made by any sheriff, coroner, elisor, or other officer, the defendant shall have the right to select the newspaper in which such notice shall be published, and upon his refusal or neglect so to do, the officer shall make publication in the newspaper making the lowest charge for the advertisement.

Exemption from Execution.

1861, ch. 7, sec. 1.

8. One hundred dollars worth of property of each defendant therein shall be exempt from execution issued on any judgment in any civil proceeding whatever, except on judgments for breach of promise to marry or for seduction.

Bramble v. State, 41 Md. 440. State v. Boulden, 57 Md. 314. Muhr v. Pinover, 67 Md. 487.

Ibid. sec. 2.

9. Each defendant in any such execution may select property, real or personal, to the value of one hundred dollars, to be ascertained by three disinterested appraisers, to be summoned and sworn by the officer at the time of levying the execution; and the appraisement signed by the appraisers shall be returned with the writ.

Ibid. sec. 3.

10. If any property of any defendant, whether real or personal, cannot be divided so as to set apart a portion of it of the value of one hundred dollars, without loss and injury to all parties concerned, then the whole shall be sold, and the defendant whose property is so sold shall have one hundred dollars of the proceeds in money; and whether the property can be divided without loss shall be determined by the appraisers. This section only to apply to cases where a single parcel of land or single article of personal property is levied on, and in all such cases the officer shall not sell unless the property offered shall bring more than one hundred dollars.
