

Non Compos Mentis

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 96. Jurisdiction over persons and property of 97. Sale of property of on application of creditor. 98. Sale, investment of proceeds of property of 99 Lease of property of. 100 Proceedings in these cases 101 Ratification by the court necessary 102 Compensation to committee. 103. Sale of property for support of lunatic 104. Confinement of lunatic. Non-Residents. 105. Notice to 106 Non-resident non compos, notice to 107. Bill of review by non-resident. 108. Defendants twice returned non est. 109. Foreign corporations. 110. Non-resident defendants in interpleader cases 111. Unknown defendants. 112. Unknown heirs of deceased proper party 113. Appearance by non-residents. 114. Mode of notice by publication. 115. Unknown defendants to bills for renewals of leases. Partition. 116. Proceedings for. Jurisdictional averments Sales Pleadings, Practice and Process. 117. Equity courts always open; terms of. 118. Clerks to keep correct dockets. 119. Suits begun by bill or case stated. 120. When process to be issued. 121. Process, when returnable. 122. How summons to be issued. 123. Service of process; how made. 124. Infant and non-sane defendants, how to answer. 125. Infants and persons under disability, how to sue. | 126. Time for appearance and answer. 127. Decree pro confesso and final decree. 128. Decree pro confesso against defendants appearing 129. Decree pro confesso on bill for discovery. 130. Answer after decree pro confesso and before final decree 131. Pleadings to be brief and concise. 132 Form of introductory part of bill. 133. To be divided into paragraphs. General frame-work of. 134. Prayer for process, how to be framed. 135. Defendant may plead, answer or demur 136. Plea or demurrer to be sworn to. Form of demurrer. 137. Demurrer or plea, how heard. 138. Time for hearing. 139. If plea or demurrer be sustained, bill may be amended 140. If overruled, defendant must answer 141. Fine when overruled. 142. Requisites of answer 143. Interrogatories to be appended to bill or answer. 144. Refusal to answer interrogatories; practice upon. 145. Cross bills. 146. When answer to be sworn to. Effect of oath. 147. When sworn answer to be evidence 148. General replication, form of. 149. No special replication to be filed. 150. Effect of failure of plaintiff to amend after leave granted. 151. Fine and commitment for contempt 152. Rule security for costs; when obtainable 153. When bond to be given to State as obligee. 154. Payment of fees to examiners, commissioners and auditors, how enforced. |
|---|--|