P. G. L., (1860,) art. 92, sec. 17. 1779, ch. 25, sec. 12.

17. If a surveyor shall return a certificate for the examination of the commissioner of the land office, and the same shall be found by him to be erroneous, the party for whose use the survey was made shall not pay any fees to the commissioner or surveyor on such erroneous certificate, but the surveyor shall pay to the commissioner of the land office one-third the usual fees thereon.

Ibid. sec. 18. 1781, ch. 20, sec. 14.

18. No surveyor shall mention any boundary in his certificate of any survey, unless he shall actually run and measure the distance to such boundary, and the boundaries by him returned shall be at the end of the line as expressed, and his certificate shall not contain more land than certified by him therein.
