

ARTICLE XCIII.

TESTAMENTARY LAW.

Account.

1. First administration account to be rendered within twelve months
2. Succeeding accounts, when to be rendered.
3. Letters may be revoked for failure to account.
4. Statement of assets.
5. Statement of disbursements.
6. Compensation to executor in lieu of commission
7. Court may examine agent of estate on oath.
8. Administrator to return a list of debts due by decedent
9. Such list not to be an admission of the justice of such debts
10. Investment of moneys to be paid in futuro, proceedings in relation thereto.
11. Account by administrator of deceased administrator.
12. Husband of deceased administratrix to state account for such administratrix.
13. Court may allow for goods that have perished or been excusably lost.

Administration.

14. Where administration is to be granted.
15. May be granted to two or more with consent of person first entitled.
16. Intestacy to be proved to the satisfaction of the court; examination by court as to circumstances of death; delay before grant of administration.

- 17 Qualifications of administrator and executor to be the same.
- 18-31. Order of legal right to administration.
32. Administration upon estate of intestate married women.
33. In what cases notice need not be given; who shall not be entitled unless they apply.
34. Who entitled to letters with the will annexed.
35. Not to be granted to any judge or register unless next of kin or creditor.
- 36 Discovery of will and grant of letters testamentary shall revoke letters of administration.
37. Acts of administrator or executor before revocation to be valid; powers of new executor or administrator.
38. Renunciation, by person entitled; release of executor or administrator; proceedings in relation thereto
39. Bond of administrator.
40. Oath of administrator.

Administration by an Executor.

41. Letters testamentary; how and when granted, bond, when bond may be dispensed with.
- 42 Within what time letters testamentary may be granted.
- 43 Administration with the will annexed, when to be granted.
- 44 Summons to the executor named in the will, if a resident of the State.